SUMMER 2016 FINANCIAL AID CHECKLIST

The last day to submit a 2015-2016 FAFSA is June 30, 2016.

- First-time Students -- Read Steps 1 - 6
- Returning Students -- Read Step 7
- Transfer Students -- Read Steps 1 & 8
- Guest/Transient Students -- Read Step 9

STEP ONE - Apply for admission to JCJC.

Applicants must meet admission requirements to receive financial aid. All previously attended accredited college transcripts must be submitted for financial aid. (Students must be enrolled in a degree-granting or certificate program at JCJC.)

STEP TWO - Create a FSA ID.

Create a FSA ID at fsaid.ed.gov to electronically sign the FAFSA. In addition, a parent of a dependent student must also create a FSA ID. (The student and parent must use different email addresses.)

STEP THREE - Complete the 2015-2016 FAFSA before the June 30, deadline date.

Complete the FAFSA application at www.fafsa.gov. Include JCJC's school code – 002411. *Applicants should use an accurate email address to receive application results and correspondence from the JCJC Financial Aid Office.

STEP FOUR - Respond promptly to the JCJC Financial Aid Office (FAO).

The student will receive an email from the FAO requesting the student check his/her "To Do List" via myJones. In some instances, the student may receive a request by mail. Submit requested information as soon as possible.

STEP FIVE – Determination of Awards.

An award notification letter indicating the type of aid and amount awarded will be mailed to the student. Students can log in myJones to check their financial aid status and current awards. Enrollment changes may affect the amount of aid awarded.

STEP SIX - Maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP).

Students receiving any form of financial aid from JCJC will be expected to maintain satisfactory academic progress toward their degree objective. See policy details at http://www.jcjc.edu/financialaid/financialaid_satisfactoryacademic.php.

STEP SEVEN - RETURNING STUDENTS

If the student did not apply for the 2015-2016 FAFSA, read and follow Steps 1 - 6. Then, read Step 7.

If a FAFSA for 2015-2016 was previously submitted with JCJC's school code, DO NOT REAPPLY. See below.

~ If the student received pell for full-time Fall 2015 and Spring 2016, the student will not have any pell eligibility available for Summer 2016. Student loans may be an option if availability exists; contact the FAO for a Summer 2016 Loan Request. However, if the student received the maximum loan eligibility for Fall and Spring, the student will not have any loan eligibility for Summer 2016.

~ If the student received pell and did not attend college full-time Fall 2015 and/or Spring 2016, the student may have pell eligibility available. Once the student completes registration, the remaining pell amount (prorated on enrollment hours) will be determined by the FAO. An award letter will be mailed to the student indicating the amount. In addition, students can log in myJones to check their financial aid status and current awards. Enrollment changes may affect aid eligibility.

STEP EIGHT - TRANSFER STUDENTS

If the student did not apply for the 2015-2016 FAFSA, read and follow Steps 1 - 6. Then, read Step 8.

If a FAFSA for 2015-2016 was previously submitted for another school, add JCJC's school code (002411) to the SAR. Read and follow Steps 1 and 4 - 6. Then, read Step 8. See below.

~ If the student received pell for full-time Fall 2015 and Spring 2016, the student will not have any pell eligibility available for Summer 2016. Student loans may be an option if availability exists; contact the FAO for a Summer 2016 Loan Request. However, if the student received the maximum loan eligibility for Fall and Spring, the student will not have any loan eligibility for Summer 2016.

~ If the student received pell and did not attend college full-time Fall 2015 and/or Spring 2016, the student may have pell eligibility available. Once the student completes registration, the remaining pell amount (prorated on enrollment hours) will be determined by the FAO. An award letter will be mailed to the student indicating the amount. In addition, students can log in myJones to check their financial aid status and current awards. Enrollment changes may affect aid eligibility.

STEP NINE - GUEST/TRANSIENT STUDENTS

If admitted as a guest/transient student, the student will not be eligible to receive financial aid at JCJC.

For additional information, please contact the FAO at 601.477.4040.

~ STUDENTS ATTENDING FALL 2016 SHOULD APPLY NOW. ➡ Complete the 2016-2017 FAFSA at fafsa.gov.~